Application for leave to appeal referred for oral argument in terms of s 17(2)(d) of the Superior Courts Act 10 of 2013

Application for condonation and reinstatement of the appeal

Application for the granting of leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Appeal against the second prayer of the notice of motion by the court a quo on 16 August 2024, and to the dismissal of the application in terms of s 319(1) the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977 to reserve five (5) questions of law for the consideration of the SCA by the court a quo on 6 January 2025.

Constitutional Law – whether the court a quo exercised its discretion judicially - whether the court a quo had been influenced by the wrong principle of law or a misdirection on the facts – whether its decision had been unreasonable in granting the separation of trials thereby overemphasising the fairness principles of the respondents and their co-accused, as well as the fairness to the public as represented by the state – whether the court a quo duly considered the prosecutorial prerogative as to how the accused should be charged as provided as provided for in terms of s 179 (2) of the Constitution – whether the court a quo erred in not considering the provisions of Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 (POCA) and the authorities in relation thereto when it interfered in the directive by the National Director of Public Prosecution in terms of s 2(4) of POCA that the respondents must be prosecuted together – whether the court a quo erred mero motu in applying its inherent powers in terms of s 173 of the Constitution instead of correctly conducting an enquiry in terms of s 342(A) of the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977.
